St. Anne

- We are honored to announce the arrival of our new Processional Crucifix, beautifully crafted and delivered directly from Italy. This sacred addition to our worship space was made possible through the generous donation of Jack and Karen Roesler, given in loving memory of their son, Mark Roesler. We extend our deepest gratitude to the Roesler family for their meaningful contribution.
- Thank You: to Jackie Meadows, Essie Garcia, Terri Banahan, and Paula Livergood for your time and effort in cleaning and painting the new religious education room. Also we'd like to thank the men who helped move the large shelves. Many hands make light work! Your dedication to our children and our Church doesn't go unnoticed!
- COMING SOON @ St Joseph's! The Women's Club annual yard sale will be on Saturday, October 18, from 8am to 2pm. We will start accepting items for donation on Sunday, August 31, 2025. Please bring them to St Joes on Sunday's or Tuesday's or bring them to St Anne's parish office during the work week. Our yard sale was such a success last year thanks to all the donations we received. If you would like to sell your own things, a table is $15, and for a spot on the grass it will be $10. We hope you consider donating items or having your own spot in the yard. If you have any questions please contact a member of the Women's Club. Please note that the Women's Club is asking that no clothes be donated
